

Natural Resources

Imagine working to protect and preserve our Earth's natural resources.

Whether you are working as a natural resources manager, interested in sustainability, or want to contribute to the development of the green economy, this area of study can help you achieve your career goals.

Make an appointment with one of our advisors to learn more about the major at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES PROGRAM

Sara Yendra
Academic Adviser
149b Hardin Hall or 345 Nebraska Union
Lincoln, NE 68588-0462
Phone: 402-472-8823
email: syendra2@unl.edu

Dr. Dave Gosselin
Director
150a Hardin Hall
School of Natural Resources
University of Nebraska
Lincoln, NE 68583-0981
Phone: 402-472-8919
email: dgosselin2@unl.edu
<http://snr.unl.edu>

*College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources
(<http://casnr.unl.edu>)*

School of Natural Resources

Career Path

Natural Resources Management, Environmental Scientist, Land Use Planning, Waste Management, Environmental Education, Forest and Land Management, Wildlife Biology, Environmental Law, Environmental Communication and Environmental Quality

Special Emphasis Courses

Ecology, Water Science, Natural Resource Policy, Soil Science, Environmental Sociology, Applied Climate Science, Geology, Natural Resource Economics, Geospatial Technology and Meteorology

Internships Available

Nebraska Game and Parks, Natural Resources Conservation Service, Environmental Protection Agency, Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Department, Nebraska Legislature, Student Conservation Association and Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality

University of Nebraska-Lincoln